

OPEN DAY

THE JOHN CURTIN SCHOOL OF MEDICAL RESEARCH

The John Curtin School of Medical Research Open Day gives you the opportunity to talk to scientists in their working laboratories. Researchers in fields as diverse as asthma, diabetes, hearing, HIV and cancer will be there to demonstrate their work and answer your questions.

On this one day, the doors of the School will be open to all secondary students and members of the public.

JCSMR Open Day takes place during the Australian Science Festival.

Friday 13 August 2010, 10am–3pm

The John Curtin School of Medical Research
Building 131 Garran Road
The Australian National University

Bookings essential for school groups only
